Model 104aB

The famous Reference series loudspeaker reviewed enthusiastically all around the world for its clean, open sound and impressive power handling.

By replacing conventional filter circuitry with an acoustic Butterworth dividing network, KEF have reduced colouration to a minimum and improved stereo depth perspective.

Model 104aB is often used as a reference to which other loudspeakers are compared.

When KEF speaks, people listen...

KEF MODEL 101

A standard of clarity, accuracy and realistic stereo imaging never before achieved in loudspeakers of such small size. Only  $13\frac{1}{2} \times 7 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$  in. (340 x 180 x 190mm) in size, KEF MODEL 101 is the latest in the celebrated KEF Reference series and is designed for the HiFi enthusiast who uses high quality amplifiers and needs high-performance speakers of limited size.

Model 105

KEF, the pioneers in computer-aided loudspeaker design, set themselves the target of removing all colouration and distortion, and presenting the best possible stereo definition, at a realistic concert-hall level.

The result is the KEF Model 105. Come and hear it and you'll discover how well KEF deserve the title 'the speaker engineers.'

Labor Day on KPFK

As usual, we bring you a special day of programming to celebrate Labor Day. We've chosen this year to filter the saga of working people through the rose-colored mike of Old Radio. You will hear classic and comic portraits of workers, bosses, and those who don't indulge (in work). Some from the Depression era, some from the straight-arrow fifties, and some projected into an imagined future time & space (closer to now than to then, perhaps). The day will also include a Sunrise & Noon concert, as well as an hour of news & commentary from 6 to 7 p.m. But for the rest of the day, enjoy the image of working people as portrayed through the years on the radio, as programmed by our resident old radio buff, Roy E. Tuckman, with Bobb Lynes.

Wednesday Sept. 3, 8 pm An Evening with Georgia Brown

Georgia Brown is a celebrated actress/singer on both sides of the Atlantic. Best known for her starring role as Nancy in the London and Broadway musical, Oliver, her numerous other stage credits include The Threepenny Opera, Lily White Boys with Albert Finney, Maggie May and Seven Deadly Sins with the Royal Ballet Company. On Broadway she has starred in Side by Side by Sondheim, and most recently as Carmelina by Lerner and Lane. Her films include The Fixer, The Raging Moon, and Seven Percent Solution. On television she has appeared in The Actor and Roads to Freedom. Also for television, Ms. Brown produced and starred in Shoulder to Shoulder. As a recording artist her albums include Georgia Brown, Many Shades of Georgia Brown, A Little of What you Fancy, and Georgia Brown Sings Kurt Weill. Most recently for the Los Angeles Actors' Theater, Ms. Brown appeared as Doll in The Alchemist Show.

In An Evening with Georgia Brown and Her Friends, a live broadcast from the L.A. Actors' Theater, Ms. Brown presents a musical tribute and odyssey through the works of those composers and writers who have been most significant to her life in the theater, including Weill, Gershwin, Shakespeare, Ellington, Sondheim, Basie, Eisler, Piaf, Brecht, Weigel, Deussau, Bessie Smith and Gunter Grass.

Saturday Sept. 20, 10 pm New Music New Season

KPFK's premiere concert in this season's series of New Music concerts performed and broadcast live from our Studio Z, features Ingram Marshall, composer performer and Bay Area resident. Marshall uses voice, electronics, pre-recorded tapes and a long bamboo flute from Bali called a Gambuh when he performs. He will present a special concert in memory of Jan Sibelius, who died 23 years ago on September 20. We hear selections from Marshall's own Fragility Cycles, including the piece Sibelius in his Radio Corner.

The concert is free to the public and is made possible in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. Reservations are suggested.

Front Cover:

We are privileged to have an original pencil drawing, done by artist Greg Battes expressly for the KPFK Folio.

Tuesday Sept. 23, 8:30 pm Coltrane Tribute

John Coltrane was born September 23, 1926. Jazz Omnibus host Ron Pelletier pays tribute to this great master of the saxophone on what would have been his 54th birthday. Included is a rare tape of an interview done with Trane in November of 1966, less than a year before his death. Interviewed by author Frank Kofsky, Coltrane discusses his art, the meaning of music in human existence, and his own spiritual approaches. Also heard will be many of Coltrane's classic recordings, including A Love Supreme, Impressions, Ascension, and Chasin' the Trane.

Wednesday Sept. 24, 8 pm EVTE Concert

Second in the series of live New Music concerts from Studio Z (to which you are also invited), the Extended Vocal Techniques Ensemble performs works by William Brooks, David Jones, Roger Marsh, Robert Erickson, and Deborah Kavasch. EVTE was formed in 1972 as an experimental research and performance division within the Center for Music Experiment in San Diego. Its extraordinary sonic vocabulary arose from collective experimentation, improvisation and study of other musical cultures. Since 1976 the Ensemble has performed and lectured and broadcast extensively throughout Europe, the US and Canada. Composers such as Erickson, Vinko Blobokar, London, Bernard Rands, Roger Reynolds and Joji Yuasa have all written solo and ensemble pieces for EVTE, perhaps for the reasons that the newspaper Het Parool in Amsterdam expressed when it said, "A virtuoso vocal show. . . staggering. . . The participants have given virtuoso training to their voices and have keenly developed their musicianship to an enormous versatility. . . Joyful."

Tuesdays After midnite Explorers of Humankind

After a long waiting period, Something's Happening is finally presenting the Explorers of Humankind Conference, held in Los Angeles, June 1978, sponsored by the Somatics Conference Associates. The ten speakers were selected by having created a unified vision of the human being that welds together the 'mind' and 'body' into a synthesis of major historical importance. They spoke on their personal pathways. The line-up is fantastic:

Moshe Feldenkrais, creator of the Feldenkrais system of Functional Integration; Alexander Lowen, associate of Reich and founder of Bio-Energetics; Ida Rolf, research bio-chemist who founded Structural Integration (Rolfing). Series continues through Fall.

Each talk and public interview will be presented, and in addition, the press conferences following the public appearances will be presented. It should be noted that at this marvelous event, KP-FK had the only broadcast recording at the press conference.

The conference was produced by Thomas Hanna, Editor in Chief of Somatics Magazine and founder of the Novato Institute for Somatic Research and J. Charles Sterin, hypnotherapist and board member of the Wholistic Health and Nutrition Institute. The tapes of the public talks were recorded by Butterfly Media, 8817 Shirley Ave., Northridge 91324. Telephone 213/886-4700. We thank Messrs. Hanna and Sterlin for permission to broadcast the series.

The talks will air Tuesday nights at midnight except for special program nights. So watch Folio for details.

Film of the Month

Carny

Starring Gary Busey, Jodie Foster, Robbie Robertson, Meg Foster.
Screenplay by Thomas Baum, Produced by Robbie Robertson, Directed by Robert Taylor.

We quote from David Denby's review in New York Magazine, June 1980. The film has not yet been released here.

"This is a hip and tough-minded movie about show business, the first in a long time. No tears, no solemn martyrdom—and what a relief! Robert Kaylor, the ex-documentary filmmaker who directed, and Thomas Baum, the novelist and TV writer who did the screenplay (it's the first feature for both men), revel in the low-life funk and disorder of carnival routine—the pleasures and pains of life on the road, the offhand sexual arrangements, the scruffy fights with local blowhards and gangsters. "Kaylor jumps all over the place, showing us how the carnival works. Success on the midway, we can see, depends on mastering the tease. Starved for entertainment and thrills, the smalltown Southerners in Carny want a touch of the forbidden—a primitive strip show, a few minutes in the tent with a bearded lady. Kaylor zeroes in on the edgy relationship between performer and spectator. Frankie the "Bozo" (one who sits in a cage above a tank of water and goads people into buying chances to dunk him; Gary Busey) can hurt with his taunts and insults, and some of the men in the crowd, drunk or showing off for women, want to fight back. Each side sings the other with hostility—it's the nasty high of combat that draws people to the midway. Since Kaylor puts us on the side of the bunco artists who run the show, we enjoy watching the rubes fall for old tricks—until suddenly, in a malicious shift, Kaylor turns the con on us, pulling the rug out from under our smug certainty. This restless movie, with its brilliant light flashing against the dark backgrounds, its noise and desperation, draws stronger emotions out of us than we may want to feel; there's an element of threat in its sudden surges of melodrama.

"(Busey's) counterpart in every way is Patch (Robbie Robertson, formerly the lead guitarist of The Band), who worries about keeping the show going. The Busey and Robertson performances are complementary. Busey, loose and volatile, projects heroic sweetness; Robertson is as tight as a drum. With his quiet gravelly voice and dark, dreamy, heavy-lidded eyes, Robertson is like a decadent Sleeping Beauty.

"When restless Frankie picks up Donna (Jodie Foster), a bored young waitress, and asks her to travel iwth the carnival and live in the trailer, Patch gets angry and vaguely jealous—he wants things to stay the way they are.

"What makes Carny hip is the relaxed sexiness of the triangle—unlike the way forties movies were resolved, the issue of who sleeps with whom is a matter of taste and inclination and not morals, and no one gets punished for the 'wrong' decision. Carny doesn't make any statements. Instead, it burrows into a juicy milieu and gets at the way certain people feel about their lives. The movie is filled with satisfyingly sultry and lurid detail—it's a sweetly disreputable piece of filmmaking.

The screening will be on

Saturday September 5
Los Feliz Theater
1822 No. Vermont Ave.
Los Angeles

Sunday September 6
Monica Theater
1332 2nd Street
Santa Monica

At late morning times to be announced.

Reservations will be taken on Thursday, September 4, 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. over 213/985-5735. You must have your Film Club Card in hand when you call for reservations and when you come to the theater.

Running time: 105 minutes.
Rated "R."

Gary Busey, Jodie Foster, Robbie Robertson.

There is NO Classic Film scheduled for this month. If a bonus film becomes available, we'll notify you in the usual way.

We are considering dropping the Classic Film Series, due to limited member interest (usually no more than 200 attendance at each screening). However, we want to hear your feelings about it. Please write to Film Club Director Barbara Spark, c/o the station. We want the Film Club to reflect your interests.

Report to the Listener

Jim Berland,
General Manager.

This fiscal year is drawing to a close (September 30). As it does we look back on many difficulties, including a disastrous experience with computers, rising pressures of inflation, and increased demands from a crisis-racked society. We can also look at important accomplishments. Because of the sacrifice of our staff we have reduced our debt during this past year by $60,000. The remaining debt is manageable, and while it will be reduced further in this next year, is no longer the albatross preventing our growth. In fact during the past year we have grown. Our income is up 10% to 15% (depending on the income in September as yet unknown). We are restoring some of the staff positions that we cut last fall, more people are listening, and most important, more people are subscribing. While the figures are not totally reliable, because of the computer problems, we have 15,000 subscribers on the books today. That's an increase from 11,500 at the beginning of the year.

As we look into the new fiscal year, we are seeking a major boost for growth. We will be completing the long-awaited new transmitter and antenna combination which will bring our signal to many thousands of new listeners, and should increase the number of subscribers. The new system will cost more to operate (in electricity and space rental), but the advantages are considerable. It should be easy to receive KPFK in cars, and in many areas of Southern California which do not now get good signal. It should also eliminate our "dumping" or going off the air for equipment failure or repair, as the transmitter is actually two matching units, one of which will sustain a powerful signal while the other is out of action.

But we have even bigger plans for the future. KPFK owns the building and land upon which we stand. This has become an extremely valuable piece of real estate. But at the same time it is not particularly useful to us in its present state. We cannot effectively use all of the space because of the lack of parking, and we cannot build additional studios very easily because of the nature of the structure's design. The studio locations are far from much of Los Angeles' ethnic communities as well as far from many in the west side of L.A.

who support the station with volunteer efforts. It seems that we could effectively use the financial value of the current building to support a move to a preferred location. As part of this move we could also generate additional support from grants and donations and solve the facilities problems that have plagued us for the past twenty years. We envisage a facility which would have an auditorium for performances and recording, that could be used for music, drama and community issues meetings. We could finance the construction of training space, additional studios, office space, storage, etc. One plan which we have pursued would combine the Pacifica National Office and Pacifica Tape Library, currently located at 5316 Venice Blvd. in Los Angeles, with KPFK in one facility. Pacifica owns that property and the combination would allow a major facility to be constructed from scratch. Such a project would provide Pacifica and KPFK with the most accessible and useful community broadcasting facilities in the country. It is all possible, and I urge you to let me know your thoughts and suggestions as we proceed to create a major cultural center and broadcast facility to serve Southern California. Its location on Venice near Hauser, in L.A.'s most racially and ethnically diverse district, will be a strong statement of the goals of Pacifica and building understanding among all peoples for peace.

On a more immediate note, I would like to welcome KPFK's new News Director Marc Cooper. Marc represented Pacifica as a reporter in Chile during Allende's government, and his reports and insights gave all of us a special understanding of the problems of that movement. His dramatic reports during the overthrow of Allende are high points in Pacifica journalism. He also covered the Middle East for WBAI during the 70s. Marc has wide experience abroad and this is especially needed in the wake of Internews' demise last year. While Marc's own background is strongly international, he comes from the Los Angeles area, and has a close involvement with the local community. Marc speaks fluent Spanish (not to mention Italian, and English), and this should help our outreach to the Chicano and other Latin communities.

KPFK's News has a strong challenge to meet in this decade and I urge you to support us with your information and your suggestions.

THE MORNING READING:

The Memoirs of Dmitri Shostakovich, Readings from Modern Russian Literature, Schopenhauer's Essays.

Produced & read by Gary Kern.

Gary Kern is a defunct professor who, before students stopped studying Russian, taught at the University of Rochester and the University of California (Riverside). As a sideline he hosted a program of classical music on the radio station of both universities—WRUR and KUCR. Here in Southern California, he began listening to KPFK and, inspired by the marathon readings at year's end, decided to try his own. The series of Shostakovich's memoirs, Russian stories and Schopenhauer's essays are the result. The first he chose out of love for the composer's music, the second from previous work in Russian literature, the third because Schopenhauer can say many things he would like to say, being safely dead. G.K. hopes to do more ambitious programs in the future as his technical ability improves and the years of unemployment provide leisure time.

Among other things, he has translated Before Sunrise by Mikhail Zoshchenko, Snake Train: Poetry & Prose by Velimir Khlebnikov, The Second Invasion from Mars by Arkady and Boris Strugatsky and the Education of a True Believer by Lev Kopelev. He has written studies on early Soviet writers and Solzhenitsyn, which were published, and numerous fictional works, universally rejected, including a film scenario on the life of Beethoven. Despairing of publication in this century, he is presently writing his posthumous works.

The Readings from Modern Russian Literature continue in October, after which the Schopenhauer Essays begin.

- 4:00 Devil and Miss Jones. Another depression era comedy starring Virginia Mayo as the department store clerk and Charles Coburn as the head of the store who poses as another worker. An "Academy Award Theatre" production from Oct. 23, 1946.
- 4:30 Sherlock Holmes. no, we're not looking into the workaday world of the detective, but the problem of retirement in "The Adventure of the Retired Colourman" starring Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce. Originally broadcast March 14, 1940.
- 5:00 Two Platinum Capsules. A look at the early days of radiation work and a geiger counter salesman, a careless nurse and adventurous boy. A tale well-calculated to keep you in "Suspense", CBS, January 10, 1956.

The Getting of Wisdom

Director: Bruce Beresford
Australian Film Commission

"The Getting of Wisdom is an unexpected highlight of this year's Filmex and one of the best films ever made about adolescence."

THE ATTENTION to visual detail is one constant in all these Australian films. Perhaps the most sensual of these films is The Getting of Wisdom, adapted by Eleanor Witcombe from a classic Australian novel by Henry Handel Richardson (the pseudonym used by a woman novelist, Ethel Richardson), and directed by Bruce Beresford. This magical film follows a plain, outspoken girl from the bush who comes to a fashionable school in Melbourne in 1897.

It would have been easy to simplify the drama and portray the untutored Laura (vigorously played by Susannah Fowle) as an iconoclast battling upper-class convention. The film draws some of its pathos from the alienation of the adolescent outsider, but it probes deeper than many films of this genre; it also shows how Laura is seduced by the shallow values of her peers. As she struggles to win the other girls' approval, she mocks her family and treats a shy newcomer with the same cruelty that she had experienced. Her surrender to the school's snobbism is only temporary, but it's painful to observe. The central drama is Laura's struggle to reconcile her intuitive integrity with her longing for social acceptance.

Director Beresford conveys tortured, complex emotions with unerring tact and finesse. An episode in which Laura develops a crush on a young minister and deceives the other girls into believing that they are having an affair is done with wit and perception. Laura's lesbian attachment to her music teacher is observed with equal subtlety. When the music teacher leaves the school and comes to bid farewell to Laura, the embittered girl is sitting at the piano and won't look up to say goodbye. We see her fighting her emotions; the camera is close on her face. When she finally raises her eyes, Beresford cuts to a long shot of the empty parlor; the teacher has already vanished. It's a small moment, but the sight of that empty room hits us like a blow in the stomach. Yet Beresford doesn't linger on the forlorn mood; he immediately cuts to Laura at her prayers, asking God to help her pass her final exams. The shift from pathos to sly comedy is graceful and tart.

The entire film is made with stunning economy. Beresford compresses so many highly charged details into 103 minutes that we feel as if we've lived in that boarding school with Laura. Many brief scenes leave a strong, pungent aftertaste: Laura shocking her classmates by reciting a soliloquy from Macbeth, the teachers making toast over an open fire, the girls stealing back their confiscated food for a late-night snack. The Getting of Wisdom is a gem, an unexpected highlight of this year's Filmex and one of the best films ever made about adolescence.

composer and co-editor of the Experimental Music Catalog in Great Britain, he has been one of the prime exponents of a new school of English composition, which is utterly unique. Tonight we hear three of Bryars' major works: The Sinking of the Titanic, for strings, tapes, piano, music box and voice; Jesus' Blood Never Failed Me Yet, for orchestra and tape; and Irma, an opera written in collaboration with Tom Phillips and Fred Orton (Howard Skempton as Grenville and Lucy Skeaping as Irma). 12:00 am Blows Against the Empire. Rescheduled from July 4th weekend. As the huge corporate record labels lay off hundreds of employees and bemoan the recession in record sales, independent labels are popping up continually and doing better all the time. Why? They must be doing something right. For 90' host Scott Fraser offers non-corporate, independently released rock and roll.

1:30 am Jim Morrison: Artist in Hell. Rescheduled from July 4th weekend. "Look Where We Worship." James Douglas Morrison, 1943-1971, lead singer for the Doors and alternately idolized and villified by the media, found his authentic identity as a poet. In Clare Spark's award-winning marathon documentary (1972, 2nd place Armstrong Award), his friends & associates remember the rock culture hero whose spiritual parents were Alexander the Great, Nietzsche and Kafka, and whose god was Dionysus. Morrison's poems An American Prayer, New Creatures, The Lords, read by David Birney; lots of Doors music. How much the pattern which emerges from this exploration of an enigmatic and fascinating American hero coincides with the public image, listeners can decide for themselves. Morrison died on July 3 '71.

What exactly does
earworks
do?

Earworks designs and installs musically satisfying home audio systems, or counsels you in your own equipment purchase. A housecall diagnosis and repair service is also available.

Discount stores are not good places to go for advice. Market pressures force them to recommend components for reasons that have nothing to do with how well they reproduce music. Earworks' principal stock-in-trade is information and know-how, wedded to a reliable sense of how real, live music sounds. Earworks isn't beholden to any manufacturer. We can't offer you discounts, but we can guide you toward the most musical system in your price range. If you wish, your system will be set up and voiced by a thoroughly experienced audio professional.

Please call for more information.

7:30 Introducing the New Music New Season. This evening's concert and many in the upcoming season of special musical events fall under the label of New Music. KPFK's Music Director presents an overview of the season, and a context for those who may find New Music less accessible than more traditional forms of music.

8:00 Live From Studio Z: EVTE. The Extended Vocal Techniques Ensemble was formed in 1972 as an experimental research and performance division within the Center for Music Experiment in San Diego. Its extraordinary sonic vocabulary arose from collective experimentation, improvisation and study of other musical cultures. Since 1976 the Ensemble has given performances and lectures and radio broadcasts extensively throughout Europe, the US and Canada. Composers such as Robert Erickson, Vinko Globokar, London, Bernard Rands, Roger Reynolds and Joji Yuasa have all written solo and ensemble pieces expressly for EVTE, perhaps for the reasons that the newspaper Het Parool in Amsterdam expressed, when it said "A virtuoso vocal show . . . staggering. . . . The participants have given virtuoso training to their voices and have keenly developed their musicianship to an enormous versatility. The demonstration was entertainingly packaged into a show which was studded with samples of a kind of humor which can only be described with the untranslatable word "sophisticated." . . . "Joyful."

Tonight the Ensemble performs William Brooks: 3 Madrigals; David Jones: Pastoral; Roger Marsh: Not a Soul But Ourselves; Robert Erickson: Kryl; Deborah Kavasch: Requiem. The concert is sponsored in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. You are invited to attend, free of charge. Dear KPFFK,

Not long ago, my obsession for jazz made me stray from 90.7 to the other side of the fm band. The jazz played all day long and the repetition rate for popular songs seemed spacious enough for lengthy listening. Then one day I found myself singing along with an absolutely trashy commercial. This was too much. I have since returned to KPFFK where the broadcasts are worth listening to and they're uninterrupted. Thanks for not going away while I was gone. I can't afford to send any money but I have enclosed an illustration of me enjoying KPFFK. Someday I hope to give more of myself to you like your wonderful volunteers.

P.S. About my renewal and your computer. I have also enclosed a copy of a cancelled check dated May 22. That was a donation for this year's Folios. Is your computer related to HAL 9000?

P.P.S. I'd also like to thank Terry Hodel for announcing the WorthHogs on the Calendar.

Gerry Bos, La Puente.

Your Subscription

The Computer.

Our computer is located in Santa Barbara. Your payment may not go into the computer as quickly as you might think because payments go to our lockbox and through the bank before they are fed into the computer. This process often takes more than a week from the time you send your payment. So, if you send your check by the 8th of the month, you may receive the Folio for the following month.

Bill Payment.

Always send a bill with your check!
We cannot credit your account correctly unless we know exactly what your check is paying for. If you send a check for a pledge payment without a bill, you might get credit for a new subscription and still be billed for your original pledge.

First Class Folio Mailing.

The Folio is mailed Second Class, and should take 2 to 5 days to get to most places. Unfortunately, our experience has not been good, especially with outlying areas. First Class mailing is available for $8 extra per year (prorated at 75c per month for current subscriptions. If you get your Folio on time but would like to receive it well before the first of the month, you may want to get the first class service.

I Didn't Get My Folio. . .

The Folio is mailed before the 20th of the month. If you have not received your Folio by the first of the month: 1) check your subscription expiration date on the previous Folio mailing label (upper right hand corner of label). 2) Make sure you haven't moved without notifying us. 3) If you haven't moved and are currently enrolled as a subscriber, contact your local postmaster about delivery. 4) Send us a previous Folio label with an explanatory note or call for a new Folio to be sent to you.

Moving—Address Changes.

If you move, your Folio will not be forwarded unless you have requested Second Class forwarding from the Post Office. The best way to expedite an address change and assure continued receipt of the Folio is to contact us—in writing preferably—before you move, giving us your name, old zip-code, and new address. There is an address form on the back page of the Folio that you can clip: it already has your current mailing label on its back. Always include your account number at the top of your Folio label for instant handling. Address changes that we get back from the Post Office cost us 25c apiece and frequently take a month to be returned to us.

Prisoner Subscriptions.

KPFK sends a free subscription to any prisoner upon request.

Cassette Folios for the Print

Handicapped. The Folio is available on cassette (returnable) to all print handicapped subscribers. If you'd like to get the Cassette Folio, please tear off the address label on the back of your Folio and send it along with a note (or you may call). Within two months, you'll be receiving your complete program guide on cassette. The cassettes are returned to us at the end of each month to be re-used.

Exchange Mailing Lists.

KPFK exchanges and rents its subscriber lists to other organizations of common interest (Channel 28, Ralph Nader, ACLU, etc.). If you don't want to be on exchange mailing lists, send your Folio label to the Subscriptions Department and ask for an "NJ" code. Your name will then be automatically excluded from all mailings except for the Folio and other communications from us.

Your Letters

Dear Jane,
Please mention my name for the picture of Sly in this month's Folio. Also please call me about more assignments.

Calvin Ogawa

Dear Calvin,
Thank you for the very striking photo of Sylvester Rivers, on page 3 of the August Folio. I am an inveterate credit forgetter, trying to mend my ways. I appreciate the supportive reminder & your offer of future help all the same.
Jane.

Dear Mario,
I've never considered myself particularly attracted to folk music or folkdance, but I've fallen in love with the song you use for your "Folkdance with Mario" theme. Please be kind enough to supply me with the title, album number, etc.

B.K., Granada Hills.

This is Mario's most frequently asked question about his shows. It is "Beautiful Girl" on the Monitor label, No. 480, titled "Gypsy Esma," a famous popular Macedonian Gypsy in Yugoslavia, married to band leader Stevo Teodosievsky, who backs her up.

To Jane Gordon,
Thanks much for the great work on the Folio. The inclusion of September 1st in the August Folio was a great idea. Could it be expanded into the first three days of each month? If it were, and the Folios were sent out the same day they are now, there would be no more receiving the Folio three days late.

To Roy Tuckman,
The short fund-raising breaks are fine with me, and seem to be humane for both you and the listeners. Thanks for a great show,

Bill Jeffrey.

Dear Bill,
I have found it impossible to get copy that far in advance for even one day most of the time, much less three. . . the only reason the Labor Day schedule was forthcoming was that it was all old radio and thus "in the can," and that Roy, having once BEEN a Folio Editor, is the most understanding and quick-on-the-hand-in of any staffer. Once we get the subscription system finally up to snuff, we will have (practically) no more late Folios—ever!

Jane

Hi Jane,
I have some comments on the July Folio. 1) I don't think letters from non-subscribers should be printed. I can't imagine giving that creep A.J. a gift sub. (Just a gift to the station I CAN be enthusiastic about.) 2) S.P.'s letter to Mario was in bad taste and while the show WAS a poor one, the writer's point was badly made and off the mark. But after all that Mario has done for KPFK and all the joy and hours of beautiful music he has given me, I was really shocked. Criticism is ok, but vile hate mail does not deserve to be aired in the Folio.

D.H., Santa Ana.

Dear Lois Vierk,
A brief note to express my sincere appreciation for the excellence of the two Saturday morning music programs by you and Harihar Rao. I hope KPFK folks will continue to bring to us the great musical heritage of the East in all its diversity. Your performance in this regard is singular. Thanks.

M.E.G., subscriber.

Here are a few tasks you might be interested in helping with:

Anita Styles in Promotions: Needs help on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays in Administrative support: typing, filing, phone answering, "Prospecting" for premiums for the fall, writing press releases, artist for graphic layouts. Approx. 5 hours a day. Also staffing for Winterfair '80 food, drink and information booths.

Ahna in Subscriptions: Needs one person for each day of the week (or some evenings), to answer phones, sort mail, call subscribers, check accounts, and/or staff information booths about KPFK at appropriate gatherings. Approx. 8 hours a day.

Jane in Folio: Needs help reorganizing the Graphics Files. They are in a shambles, and need to be gone through and re-thought, re-sorted and re-labeled. All over the office are graphics from past Folios that need to be re-filed. Once the current situation is straightened out (couple of weeks' work), once a month should keep it in order.

Paul Vangelisti in Cultural Affairs: Beginning in September will need help addressing mailers once a month and distributing flyers 1 or 2 days a month. Also, if you're experienced in covering cultural events in the community, he needs you on an on-call basis or to generate coverage of events on your own initiative. Call for interview.
